Dear Dott. Briganti,

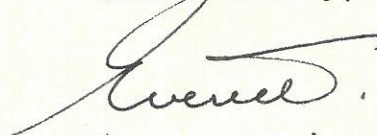

Since writing you last month about the picture of Pilgrims receiving Rosaries from a Franciscan Saint, I have received prints of some new negatives which were made of the picture which you kindly suggested to me last year might have something to do with Nicola Viso.

I enclose two prints for you since I believe they give a much clearer impression of the picture.

I tried to find photographs of paintings by Nicola Viso, but failed. I wondered if you could lend me some of your own photographs of his work which I could compare with the Fogg picture? Naturally, I would handle them with care.

With thanks for your time and consideration,

Yours sincerely,

(Everett Fahy)
