Dear Signor Briganti:

It was good to hear from you, and to learn about your Doric exhibition. My doctoral thesis is published by a small firm - Garland Publishing, 545 Madison Avenue, NY, NY. Anyway, I have telephoned them and asked them to have a copy sent to you in Rome. Knowing how bad postal service is in NY and in Rome, I only hope it reaches you!

I should add that it was pleasure to meet you in NY, and I hope our paths cross again soon, on either side of the Atlantic.

Yours sincerely,
Robert Bonill

P.S. You have my address noted incorrectly - it's not 33, but ~~303~~ 303 Mercer St, NY, NY 10003. Luckily the letter got to me anyway.
