Dear Guelhaus -

Many thanks to you for having entertained Ruth while she was "baby-sitting" in Rome -

I enclose photos of the Cardinal and Mazzoni. Incidentally both Vass & Longhi have written fine endorsements as a fine P.d. Cortona. I saw in the Van Dyke "Klassiker der Kunst" a cardinal (a Borghese) I think Genovese period, who looks like the sitter in this portrait.

I sympathize with you as I suffer from "great pains in right shoulder and arm - the result of a fall" years ago and a damaged muscle. Sometimes it goes away but then suddenly returns. Don't worry, you won't die from this - only much pain and suffering.

Not much coming in the sales rooms - last week I think I have found two new Schöpfungsd - both sold different sales as Carallino.

The Madonna and Child to me is a puzzle - a definite name has been suggested - have you any ideas

Cordially,
Julius
